

77-38-8 Age-appropriate language at judicial proceedings -- Advisor.

- (1) In any criminal proceeding or juvenile court proceeding regarding or involving a child, examination and cross-examination of a victim or witness 13 years of age or younger shall be conducted in age-appropriate language.
- (2)
 - (a) The court may appoint an advisor to assist a witness 13 years of age or younger in understanding questions asked by counsel.
 - (b) The advisor is not required to be an attorney.

Amended by Chapter 352, 1995 General Session